

Yellow flag zones - Dale Wells - Competitions Manager - BARC Ltd

The flag zone starts at the point of the first yellow flag using a radius line from the actual flag point to the opposite side of the circuit and at 90 degrees to the sight line from the previous flag point. It finishes at the green flag point using the same system. Whilst in this zone the cars should slow and not overtake.

Sketch attached to make it clear.

